Saturday, April 30

We are making arrangements for several activities in the morning and early afternoon. Please sign up March 1 if you are interested

Overview of UVic's new National Centre for Indigenous Laws:

We have invited Interim Dean of UVic Law, Val Napoleon to provide an overview of the new National Centre for Indigenous Laws at UVic. This will take place at the Murray and Anne Fraser Building at UVic late morning (exact time TBD).

Private tour of the Legislature Building

Legislative reporter Richard Zussman will take you on a behind-the-scenes tour of the Legislature where you will get to see some of its history as well as some hidden oddities.

If there is nothing on that list that appeals to you, here are some other activities that you might think of organising on your own

- Trip to Butchart Gardens
- Tea at Abkhazi Gardens
- Whale watching
